McShaffrey Announces For Council

The political campaign is beginning to warm up. Not only throughout the county, but locally, for municipal offices. William A. McShaffrey is the first to make his announcement for council in the second ward. Mack expects to put his strong personality on the campaign and no one can gainsay but what he will make a good fight. As is well known, Mr. McShaffrey is a large property owner here and has diversified business intrests, being also a director in a local bank. He stands for good government and a square deal and would make a good councilman and one whose administration would do justice to all citizens alike.

For the past year Mr. McShaffrey has been away from town considerable, having leased his theatre and taken a place on the road, but he intends to be back among us the coming fall and winter and will remain here.

His decision to become a candidate was made after much solicitation on the part of citizens who are looking for a representative man for the office, a person who appreciates that the town is a big corporation that needs the wisest judgment on the part of the men at its head.

Joe Mankots, the man who made the information against George, is in the Monessen hospital in a serious condition, while the alleged knife user is awaiting trial.

Sylvester Petrok, of Bovard, was arrested by Detective Paul Feightner and committed to jail charged with a misdemeanor. He will be given a hearing before Squire J. Q. Truxal.

Mary Regula of Hufftown, was committed to jail on a warrant issued from the clerk of court's office. Mary neglected to pay the costs due the county on a case from the May term and as a result will spend part of her summer vacation in the county jail.

Brother of Local Man Was Drowned

—Fred Meybin, of the clerical force of the local Tin mill, was called to Boston, Mass., by the death of his brother, who was drowned Monday morning in the harbor at Boston. A telegram was received by Mr. Meybin at noon Monday, but no details of the accident were given. He left at once to take charge of the body and arrange for the funeral.

Many Outings At Eldora Next Week

The opening event of next week wil be one of the biggest of the mid July period at Eldora park. It will be a benefit dance that will be given Monday night by the visiting nurses' asociation of Donora and will be of such nature as to attract a large crowd from all along the Monongahela valley and from inner county points.

On Tuesday night this will be followed by a private dance to be given by the Hibernians of Monongahela. It will likewise attract a large crowd to the park.

Rev. P. E. Maher, pastor of the Roscoe Roman Catholic church, has arranged for a private picnic which will be one of the interesting events of the week and will be characterized by the usual offerings at picnic affairs.

There will be two Roscoe outings and the second will be that of the Young Men's Hebrew association of Roscoe which will enterain Thursday at the park. Friday evening of next week, John A. Weber will have his regular dance, this to be followed by the regular Saturday dance and the Sunday offerings to be announced later.

Many See Liberty Bell Yesterday

The Woman's Liberty Bell arrived here long before scheduled time yesterday afternoon and was escorted through a town by a number of prominent local suffrage workers in automobiles. The auto truck which conveys the bell from one town to another arrived at Monongahela on schedule time yesterday morning and after a noon hour speech, they left for Donora, but evidently only remained there a short time and came to this city early in the afternoon.

After they had traversed the principal streets of town, the party enjoyed a lunch prepared by Mrs. Gwyn at the Acme restaurant and then went to Fourth street where the Finnish band played several selections, and a number of addresses were made by members of the party. The party escorting the bell to Monessen included Miss Louise Hall, Miss Harriett Grim, Mrs. Gus Hill, Mrs. William Frye and Mrs. Oliver Hall. A large crowd gathered at Fourth street to hear the speeches and get a glimpse of the bell. The party left here at 7 o'clock for Charleroi.

The Woman's Liberty Bell is a duplicate of "Old Liberty" in every way. It is made of 2,000 pounds of the finest bronze and is cast in the exact size and shape of the original Bell. The only way in which it can be told from the national relic that is now on its way to the San Francisco Fair is by the fact that it is not cracked, and that a special motto for the woman's cause, "Establish Justice" has been inscribed on it in addition to its famous motto "Proclaim Liberty Throughout the Land to all the Inhabiants Thereof."

"Whitey" Will Tour County In Auto

J. I. Smith, local candidate for county commissioner, evidently expects to make a whirlwind finish in his campaign for office, as he has purchased the Ford tourning car of B. F. Weston and will tour the country in his machine. "Whitey" has already mastered the art of driving his car and from present indications if he gains votes as fast as he runs the Ford, he will easily be returned a winner.

Odd Fellows Will Picnic July 16th

The Odd Fellows of the Monongahela valley are preparing for their annual picnic and outing which will be held at Kennywood park on July 16. The Monongahela Valley Picnic Association, consisting of representatives of all lodges between Roscoe and Elizabeth, inclusive, has the arrangements for the affair in charge, and is now issuing advertising matter.

Anticipations are that this year the best attended outing in history will be held. The officers of the association arranging the affair are T. M. Smith of Fayette City, president; J. R. Chalfant of Charleroi, vice president and Robert McKelvey of Monessen, secretary.

A special train has been chartered and will make the run to and from Duquesne, where connections for the park will be made at all towns represented in the association.

Christian Sunday School Holds Outing Today

The congregation of the Christian church is holding the annual church picnic at Linn's grove today. At 9 o'clock this morning the delegation left the church on Sixth street, going by automobile to the grove. All had well filled baskets and seemed happy in anticipation of a pleasant day. Rev. Swain, the good pastor, seemed in his usual jolly mood and was very optimistic as to the weather. "A little water won't hurt anyone," he remarked as he helped passengers in the cars and looked up at the heavy clouds hanging overhead.

The heavy rains of this morning, however, drove the picnickers back to town, but after dinner they left again in autos for the picnic grounds.

Enjoying Vacation

—Albert Scales, the grocery clerk, who is spending a weeks' vacation in and about the town, took a pleasure trip yesterday on a borrowed bicycle to Webster. He reports a pleasant trip and declares the scenery to be the best in this part of the country. He is now planning a similar trip to Fayette City and surrounding towns if weather conditions are favorable and a bicycle can be secured.

Hundreds Attend Church Hearing

Many of the local people who are struggling for the property of the Greek Catholic church have been attending the court proceedings in Greensburg this week and Tuesday morning a special coach carrying 250 people left over the Pennsylvania lines at North Charleroi. Yesterday morning only about half this number were present. The men who testified stated that they had been attending service in the church for twelve years and that the same system of services had been kept in power. Most of the witnesses yesterday morning stated that Jesus Christ is the head of their church and that neither the Pope of Rome nor the Czar of Russia is recognized as the head. The doctrine as to whether the Holy Ghost came from the Father and the Son, or whether from the Father alone was one of the points that was dwelt upon at considerable length. One faction of the congregation claims that another faction has been trying to oust them from possession of the property and to establish a different system of religion. On faction claims to have 1,200 members.

That President Woodrow Wilson was prayed to, as well as the Pope of the Catholic church and the Czar of Russia by the members of certain Greek Catholic churches over the country was developed at the second day's hearing of the Greek Catholic church of Monessen. The court room was filled with participants of the squabble and witnesses. The Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic church and their pastor, Rev. G. Levcanitch are represented by Walkinshaw and Walkinshaw, and the Rev. Paul Ruttkay and the Greek Catholic church of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Maryis represented by Robbins and Wyant.

The property involved in the case is estimated to be worth $50,000 to $75,000. The church was founded in 1901 by the Greek Catholics who had as their head the Czar of Russia. A few years later Roman Catholics joined the church with the Pope of Rome as their head. The later arrivals now claim that the property should belong to them and the former deny their ownership.

THE HUSTLER

I am the guy called printer's ink;
I put hard times upon the blink—
My face is black as Erebus—
But I'm a lively, hustling cuss.
I make men rich who once were poor--
I'm on the job, I am for sure.
I get work for the lab'ring man
And help to fill his dinner can;
I aid girls who must earn their feed—
I am the friend of all in need.
I sell all things from pins to guns,
In cargoes of thousand tons.
I'm on the job both night and day.
Away from work I never stay.
I am "A 1" "O K" and "It,"
And I take a vacation — — nit.
I serve the small as well as great

IMPORTANT DECISION

A decision that has an important bearing on the coal mining industry of the Monongahela valley was handed down by Judge J. A. McIlvaine in the suit of the Youghiogheny-Pittsburgh Coal company against District No. 5 of the United Mine Workers of America and its officials. In the action the coal company, which operates a mine in Fallowfield township, declared that the miners were mining what is known as "thick" vein coal, but the workmen through the union officials claimed they should be paid for mining "thin" vein coal, the scale of wages being higher in the latter. The opinion of Judge McIlvaine decided in favor of the miners, or defendants in the suit. The deciding factor in the case was the agreement entered into on March 21, 1914, in which the operators in District No. 5 agreed that for two years thereafter an imaginary line separated the thick and thin vein coal mines and not in reality the thickness of the vein of coal itself. This boundary line extends from Cedar Creek station on the Youghiogheny river to Lock No. 4 on the Monongahela river and thence to the Waynesburg and Washington railroad on a straight air line.

The suit resulted when miners employed by the Youghiogheny-Pittsburgh coal company walked out and refused to work under the thick vein scale. Nine cents more a ton is paid for the mining of thin vein coal. In his comments on the case Judge McIlvaine said in part:

"The plaintiff company employed union labor. Its miners were members of the association known as the United Mine Workers of America, and the defendants were charged with the duty of seeing that they had the benefits of and complied with the rules and regulations of said union or association. The burden therefrom was upon the plaintiff in this case to show that it was paying union wages and that the defendant unlawfully and wrongfully called its miners out and still keeps them out. Has this been done? Certainly not."

LOST-REWARD

To the Public:

Forty years ago the half of a coin as shown in the illustration was lost or stolen in Gretzhoffen. This Broken Coin is of great value, not for the metal which it contains, but, together with the other half, it is the key to a secret of vast importance.

The Broken Coin is 1¼ inches in diameter, copper color. Above is a photograph of the one side. Identification can easily be made with illustration. The reverse side contains a portion of a strange inscription in Latin.

The Broken Coin here shown was traced by detectives to the mate of a schooner, the Marie Belle, who pawned it in London in 1878. It was then traced to New York and from there carried by an Armenian peddler to Chicago.

It has lately been traced to this city. Here the trail ends. Someone has this Broken Coin. It may be hidden in an out-of-the-way place—possibly in an old coin collection.

Look everywhere for the Broken Coin. If you find it you will be rewarded. If you can give any information as to its whereabouts, and it is located through your information, you will receive a large reward. Search now! Look everywhere! Report any clue to the M. P. Editor of this newspaper who will immediately take up the matter with Carlos von Kapen, Consul General for Gretzhoffen, N.Y. City

Can she take a chance and hide THE BROKEN COIN in the count's apartment? What shall she do?

Spots often floated before my eyes. I finally procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Hirsch Drug Co. and began taking them. I improved from the first and was soon cured." WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, R.F.D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Another Sufferer Relieved.

Hebron, Me.—"Before taking your remedies I was all run down, discouraged and had female weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and find today that I am an entirely new woman, ready and willing to do my housework now, where before taking your medicine it was a dread. I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, R. F. D., No. 1, Hebron, Maine.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter wil be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

All Voters Must Register

All voters who desire to participate in the primary election on Tuesday, September 21, must be registered and enrolled 60 days prior to that date.

The act of assembly requires the registry assessor to be at the polling places of the precinct on July 20 and 21 to register the voters and to make or change enrollments for the party primaries.

As most of the various township and county offices are to be filled this year, unusual interest is being taken in the coming primary election, but no voter can participate in the primaries of a party unless he has been enrolled. If a voter has either failed to be enrolled in the party of his choice or desires to change his enrollment, he ought to see the assessor before July 21 and see that his name is properly enrolled. It is not enough that he be simply registered as the election officers cannot give a ballot of any party to a voter unless his name is enrolled with that party.

Many of the candidates as they go over the county find men who think they can vote whether enrolled or not and that the election officers will give them a ballot; but this is contrary to law and an election officer could be indicted for an offense against the commonwealth for so doing.

Many Washington party voters have gone back to the Republican party and also many independents, but these men cannot vote unless they present a certificate of enrollment to the assessor or see him fill out the necessary blanks requesting a change.

The assessors are all furnished with the enrollment and certificates and will have them at the polling places on July 20 and 21, or they can be seen at any time prior to those dates at their homes or places of business.

JAY VOTE FOR THREE JUDGES

Change in Law Affecting Superior Court Places.

NON-PARTISAN ACT TO BLAME

No Reason For Minority Representation Provision In Law Creating Superior Bench and Legislature Wiped It Out—Judges Orlady and Head Are Candidates For Re-election, But Rice Is In the Field.

Philadelphia, July 6.—After the governor finished swinging his veto axe on the bills sent him by the legislature is was found that only one drafted in the interest of the Republican party which escaped adverse action was that to permit an elector to vote for as many candidates for the superior court as there are vacancies to be filled. It is true that he did sign other election bills, but they were of minor importance and of little consequence to the future welfare of the party.

The superior court change was made necessary by reason of the non-partisan method of choosing judges. When the act creating the superior court was passed provision was made for minority representation by specifying that whenever two vacancies were to be filled an elector could vote for but one candidate, and in case of three vacancies, not more than two candidates. This gave the Democratic party positive representation on the bench.

But the non-partisan act of course wiped out the minority party representation provision, and it became necessary to change the law. The signing of the bill bringing about the change greatly clarifies the situation on the choosing of three superior court judges this fall. It means that all candidates are placed on an equal footing in their quest for support.

Has Splendid Record.

It so happens that the term of the minority member of the superior bench, Judge Head, expires this year, together with the terms of two of his Republican colleagues. But there is no disposition on the part of Republicans to defeat Judge Head and make the bench solidly Republican. Judge Head has a splendid record as a member of the superior bench, and Republican lawyers generally feel that it would be a mistake to remove him merely because of a change in the law.

Judge George B. Orlady, of Huntingdon county, is also a candidate for re-election, and, like Judge Head, the probability is that he will have little difficulty in landing high and dry. In the event of his success he will become president judge of the court in place of Judge Charles E. Rice, of Wilkes-Barre, who some time ago announced his retirement from the bench at the expiration of his term next January.

Rice's Retirement a Loss.

In the retirement of Judge Rice the superior bench sustains a distinct loss, the most serious since its creation. Judge Rice was one of the first seven judges appointed to the superior bench, and at the subsequent election, when all the appointees submitted their candidacies to the people, he received many thousand more votes than any other aspirant. He has been president judge since the first day the court sat. Upwards of twenty bar associations have petitioned Judge Rice to remain on the bench, but fearing that his advanced age would not permit him to perform the duties of the place as they should be performed, he has refused to reconsider the decision he arrived at a few months ago.

There is a likelihood of a scramble for the vacancy caused by the retirement of Judge Rice. Already a number of candidates have pushed forward favorite sons, and more are yet to come. One of the strong claimants is Philadelphia, which complains that it has not any representation on the superior bench and but one judge on the supreme bench. Under these circumstances it would not be surprising if the Philadelphia lawyers put up a hard fight for the place.

Next Supreme Vacancy.

The term of no supreme judge expires next January, in fact, it will be November, 1920, before the people are called upon to choose judges for the highest tribunal in the state. On the first Monday of January, 1921, the terms of Justices J. Hay Brown, of Lancaster, and S. Leslie Mestrezat, of Fayette, expire. After this year there will be no election for a superior judge until November, 1919, when the term of Judge William D. Porter, of Allegheny, is about to run out.

In addition to the superior court judgeship vacancies this year, petitions are being circulated for no less than twenty-six common pleas judgeships in various counties of the state. Among these places are ten that are filled temporarily by appointments from Governors Tener and Brumbaugh. Every judge named by these governors wants to be elected for a full term.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (cause by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
